Spurned by Santa Claus as a little boy, Henry Milton grows up to be a street savvy lawyer who teaches his eight-year-old son to only believe in himself. When a client arrives in Henry's office wanting to sue Kris Kringle, Henry accepts the case as a cheap publicity stunt. But when Santa shockingly appears in court with a team of elf lawyers, Henry must fight the trial of the century. Winning is everything---until Henry discovers a simple mistake kept Santa from bringing him a Mr. Steely robot all those years ago. Now Henry must decide between taking over the world's largest toy factory or saving holiday joy for boys and girls everywhere---including his own child, whose only Christmas wish is to see his parents back together.
